

Haylands Pe Kit Expectations

On PE Days we are continuing to see children in a multitude of colourful, branded or logo'd clothing which is NOT the correct Haylands PE uniform. The expectation is that children do not treat PE Day as a mufti day. The purpose of spending the day in PE Kit is not to provide children with an opportunity to wear their chosen home clothes; but to enable the process of transitioning from classroom activities to physical exercise easier and more efficient.

We are asking parents to ensure children are dressed in the correct PE Kit as stated in our uniform policy. This can be found on our website (or as shown opposite).

Please be aware the following are not acceptable:

- Logo'd or branded clothing
- Hoodies
- Clothing outside of the prescribed colours
- Fashion sports items or trainers

PE Kit

- Red or black shorts
- Generic white t-shirt or Haylands sports shirt
- Black or white trainers or plimsolls
- Blue, black or grey tracksuit for colder weather.
- NO leggings or cycling shorts

These expectations have been in place for some time and have been shared with children consistently, however we are still seeing a range of unsuitable clothing being worn. Going forward we will be considering all options to apply consequences for those repeatedly not following these expectations. This could include missed breaks or potentially after school detentions for year 6 considering their preparation for Secondary School, where sanctions for not following the rules are more severe.

SCHOOL UNIFORMS WHAT YOU NEED TO KNOW

We do understand the financial constraints families are under and would encourage parents to speak to the class teacher to be signposted for further support. School uniforms can reduce peer pressure at school for the latest clothes and help children feel settled and prepared for school, but they can be costly for parents. In line with government expectations, we have made changes recently to enable parents to purchase school uniform from more high street retailers to allow the costs to be kept low.

We also support the uniform swap at Ryde Aspire by donating surplus uniform gifted to us in the hope that this will allow parents to obtain items in a central location either free or for a small donation.

Age Restrictions on Social Media

It is against the law to be on social media sites under the age of 13!

The COPPA law or Children's Online Privacy Protection Act states that any organisations or people operating online services (including social media services) are not allowed to collect the personal information of anyone under the age of 13 without parental permission.

Facebook, Instagram, Twitter and Snapchat all require users to be at least 13 years old before they can create an account.

Creating a Facebook account with false information is a violation of Facebook's terms, including accounts registered for someone under 13.

The minimum age for WhatsApp is 16 years old. YouTube requires account holders to be aged 18 years and over.

Apps

Apps can be a positive place for young people to socialise with peers. Many enable instant messaging, social networking and image sharing.

Some, like YouTube, can also be a great creative outlet. But consider:

- Privacy settings and age relevance
- Talking to them about the content they share
- Discussing the consequences of sharing messages and images.

Instant Messaging

Instant Messaging is a great way to socialise and keep up to date with what's going on right now. However there is a risk of unsolicited contact. If your child is using messenger services you should:

- Look at the privacy settings
- Ensure they understand that they may be talking to people they don't know and the risks this brings
- Talk to them about what is and isn't appropriate to send.

Online Safety Guidance for Parents

Online spaces, games and media form a large part of life for young people growing up today. They offer platforms to connect with others and to learn.

Risks

Of course there are risks associated with being online, as there are with all aspects of life. These include:

- Exposure to inappropriate content
- Sharing too much personal information
- Connecting with harmful people and
- Spending unhealthy amounts of time online.

Have a conversation

One of the best ways to help young people stay safe online is to talk to them about what they do.

If you understand the situations they encounter you'll be better placed to offer them advice on how to deal with them.

Gaming

Gaming is fun but be aware that it can be all consuming. Some things to consider:

- Use the gaming consoles' safety settings
- Agree with your child how much time they can spend playing online
- Pay attention to the PEGI (age) ratings and what they mean
- Remember that some online games have inbuilt chat functions
- Be aware that your child might use servers or 3rd party applications to access interactive online communities.

Bullying

Remember, it's not the technology that's the problem, it's the bullies' behaviour. Support young people by:

- Talking about bullying issues
- Making sure young people know that they can turn to you for support
- Reporting any incidents - it will help your child and others too.

Live Streaming

Broadcasting online brings an instant thrill that can be addictive. Encourage young people to think about:

- Body image - talk to them about how they want to be perceived online and who their audience might be
- Privacy - how do they protect it? You can't edit something that is going out 'live'
- Age appropriate - is the site they're using appropriate for them? Most social media sites are aimed at 13 year olds and upwards. If not, is there a way to make it safer for them (e.g. YouTube Kids).
